

Terms of Reference

End line Evaluation for Enhancing access to timely and quality rehabilitation to survivors of torture and violence in local communities of Uganda Project

Background

The African Centre for Treatment and Rehabilitation of Torture Victims (ACTV) and DIGNITY finalised implementation of a project aimed at enhancing access to timely and quality rehabilitation to survivors of torture and other forms of violence in the sub-counties of Bwesumbu and Maliba in Kasese District of Uganda through the implementation of ACTV's community model.

Purpose of end line Evaluation

The purpose for this end line evaluation is to assess the performance of the project and capture project achievements, challenges and best practices to inform future similar programming.

Objectives of end line evaluation

The evaluation will have three main objectives:

1. Evaluate to what extent the project delivered on effective, efficient, relevant, sustainability and timely activities to beneficiaries as set in the project log frame.
2. Assess whether the collaboration between ACTV and the community based structures added value, to the interventions with a positive effect on beneficiaries and other stakeholders. What has contributed to this added value and what has not?
3. Identify key achievements including Knowledge Attitudes and Practices on torture, key lessons learned/best practices, challenges and draw recommendations for future ACTV programming

Evaluation Deliverables

The consultant is, expected to lead, accomplish and submit the following deliverables within the agreed timeframe and budget:

1. An inception report, which will serve as an agreement between parties on how the evaluation will be, conducted. Items to address are:

- Understanding of the issues and questions raised in the ToR
- Research methodology, including suggested sample and size
- Detailed budget
- Appropriate validated draft data collection tools (e.g. methodological guidelines, group interview questions)
- Raw data in any of the following statistical packages (STATA, SPSS, cSPro) and also transcribed qualitative scripts

2. max 35-page draft and final evaluation report (in MS Office and PDF for final), excluding annexes and in English

Applications should be, submitted to actv@actvuganda.org or ceo@actvuganda.org not later than 30th June 2022.

For details about the application process and Terms of Reference please visit our website www.actvuganda.org